

Update on Providing Patient Access to Clinical Information Managed Through the HealthInfoNet Health Information Exchange

Maine's State Innovation Models (SIM) Grant

- Providing patients access to their statewide clinical information is one of four key deliverables that is defined for HealthInfoNet
- HIN will develop and deploy a "blue button" approach to allow patients who access their medical records through provider-base personal health portals, to also access their clinical data within HealthInfoNet.

- Clinical case summary

